DISTINCTION AND STYLE

We have been successful because we have a style and distinction to our printing that the ordinary man didn't have the talent or inclination to give. We have cut out for ourselves and individuality--a style.

You have the same thing; you have individuality. It sticks out; when a person hears something you have said, he says, "That sounds like Brown." It's same way with your printing. Does it impress with a distinction or style? If not you should telephone or write to County Court.

Monday was county court day and it proved a busy one for August. The crowd consisted of the farmers from all portions of Crittenden, with a number from Union, Caldwell, Webster and Livingston counties. The order of business the convening of the county court, with Judge Blackburn on the bench, of land sales by Commissioner Robbester, of horse and mule sales, horse trading, watermelon selling, preaching in the court house yard and, for so large a crowd, was the most peaceable one we ever saw. It proved to be a great day for our merchants, especially our advertisers. We will give the records of the court Friday.

I am agent for the Hopkinsville Steam Laundry and am here to stay, not in one week and out the next. If you give me your patronage I shall appreciate it and render you a prompt and satisfactory service that will prove unequalled. Its Old and Reliable and besides, is a Kentucky Institution. Please save your laundry for me and when I fail to satisfy you I shall not blame you to then take it from me.

Yours Truly,
ROY GILBERT.
